

TWO-DAY-OLD BABY AND MOTHER SAVED IN BURNING HOUSE

Firemen and Detectives Carry Brooklyn Woman and Three Children Out Over Roof.

A fire which was more smoke than flame in the cellar of the four-story apartment house at No. 48 Hicks Street, Brooklyn, to-day provided police and firemen with an opportunity to rescue several persons by carrying them from the top floor to the roof and thence to an unoccupied house a little distance away.

The fire was discovered by Catherine Rice, thirteen years old, whose mother, living on the top floor, had introduced her to a baby brother two days ago. Catherine, fearing to disturb her mother, told Henry Buck, tenant of the third floor, and after a hasty trip to the cellar he called Policeman White of the Poplar Street station. The policeman dashed into the house after telling a boy to send an alarm.

While Mrs. Buck and H. H. HARRIS, the second-story tenant, were going down the stairs in the smoke, White climbed to the fourth floor by way of the fire escape. The Rice family, with the exception of Catherine, knew nothing of the fire until White ordered them out. By this time the firemen of Truck 103 and Engine 207 and Detective Benjamin Christie, of the Sixth Branch, had arrived, and all went up the escape and helped the Rices to the roof.

Mrs. Rice was carried down through the scuttles of the house at No. 32 and made comfortable on an old mattress until an ambulance could take her. Long Island College Hospital. Her baby was taken with her and her other two children were cared for by neighbors. The fire was confined to the cellar and did slight damage.

SNOWBALL TARGET TRIES TO SHOOT BOY MARKSMEN

Chases Tormentors With Pistol Which Refuses to Go Off—Black Mask In His Pocket.

Stopping a snowball with the back of the neck is not the pleasantest sensation possible. Receiving two of the damp messengers in the same spot is just half as pleasant, but when they come so fast as to overtax the carrying capacity of one's neck, one is apt to become peevish. That's what Alexander Nanelebut did last night when a crowd of boys snowballed him as he was passing through Sixteenth Street, between Avenue H and C.

Alexander, who is twenty-two, drew a revolver and chased the boys up Avenue B. At Seventeenth Street he was grabbed by policemen—hold fast, you're coming to a covey—Saitan-machia. As the incident happened in the heart of the Gas House district, the policeman had a hard time getting Alexander to the East Twenty-second Street station house intact. There it was found he had made three unsuccessful attempts to discharge the revolver. In one of his pockets a black mask and an extra round of cartridges were found.

Alexander explained that he was on his way to a Russian masquerade to pose as a bandit when the boys attacked him. He was looked up, however, charged with attempted felonious assault on one of the boys and carrying a concealed weapon.

A Spring Fashion Show
is to be seen in our Broadway windows these days—new ideas in millinery, in women's suits and in dresses for women and young girls.

The Ways of the Spring Suit

Six Charming Conceptions of What the New Suit Should Be Will Greet You Here at

$33.75

A—Of navy blue or black serge with a bit of fulness over the hips and triple folds of material, each caught with a button. This idea is repeated on the skirt. $33.75

HERE is an Oxford gray Melton cloth, braid bound, which tells us that strictly tailored modes are good for spring—an opinion that is confirmed by serge suits, also plain of cut and touched with braid.

A tricot suit of navy blue pins its faith on loops and buttons of self material to win you.

Even the collars and cuffs are primly gray or severely white, but pockets—pockets simply won't be restrained, for they take on new shapes with every wind that blows.

B—A youthful, belted suit of navy or black serge with pleats over the hips and gathers across the back. Smart silk braid bindings are used on the jacket. $33.75

FOR YOUNG WOMEN Spring Endorses Silk Frocks With Touches of Embroidery

For the matinee, dance or afternoon tea—yet not impractical for daily wear; generally appropriate, always fresh looking, and embodying the quality of grace befitting youthful apparel.

Little touches of hand embroidery in self color embellish the blouse, cuffs and peplum of the frock illustrated. It is of crepe meteor—plum, navy, black or Russian green, with collar and vest of white Georgette crepe. $19.74

A simple frock of silk has four tabs of contrasting color extending above and below the crushed girdle. These are stitched in silk to match the main color. Old blue, pearl, tan, plum, navy. $22.74

A straight line frock of crepe de chine has box pleated skirt. The waist and wide belt are daintily hand embroidered in a contrasting color. Collar and vest of white Georgette crepe. Old blue, pearl, rose, plum, navy. $22.74

Third Floor, 35th Street

Good Shoes for Young Feet

The feet of healthy young girls grow fast, but why deny them the comfort of youthful shoes?

Two new models, specially designed: Buttoned Shoes with patent colt vamps and gray suede uppers; smoked pearl buttons. 2½ to 6. $5.94. High cut, gun metal, lace. Size 2½ to 6. $4.96.

To Wear With Street Suits

Taffeta Blouses, $2.79

Softly colored blouses of taffeta in dark stripes which will harmonize well with the dark shades of tailored suits. The collar is cut in an open "V" and smoked pearl buttons fasten the waist. $2.79

Third Floor, 34th Street

Charm and Economy Are Admirably Combined in

Women's Frocks

At $17.74 and $18.74

A delightfully simple frock for afternoon or street wear is of Georgette crepe, trimmed with bands of striped taffeta, while a deep fold of this material finishes the lower edge of the skirt. In navy, green, black or brown Georgette crepe, combined with striped taffeta in harmonizing shades. $17.74

Another model is of Georgette combined with plain taffeta—three bands showing on the skirt and sleeves. The bodice is almost entirely of taffeta, embroidered with silver. In navy, taupe and pearl gray. $18.74

Third Floor, Broadway

SPECIAL A Collection of Becoming New Hats at $4.96

INEXPENSIVE HATS whose charm lies in their simplicity of style and excellence of material and workmanship.

Note, for instance, the hat pictured at the left. It is of gray blocked Milan hemp, faced with Nattier blue taffeta. The crown is encircled with ribbon of the same shade and the front is finished with a garniture of tiny flowers.

The large hat with its round feather fantasy is suitable for semi-dress wear, while the small tailored tricorne should be worn with a simpler costume.

These are but three from our big assortment at this price—and each will be a distinct acquisition to your wardrobe.

Specially priced at $4.96

Second Floor, 34th Street, Broadway

Misses' Outer Apparel Acquires New Distinction

Sartorially speaking, vests, narrow shoulders and closely fitting sleeves distinguish the suits with tailored simplicity; coats take more liberties with conservatism and adopt the barrel silhouette.

A swagger suit of black or navy twill, illustrated, has a wide belt at its full shirred waist; large button trimmed pockets; vest of natural ponce extending almost to the hem of the coat. The skirt is smartly plain. $44.75

A coat of all wool poplin has the barrel effect of its skirt accentuated with protruding side pockets; the sleeves flare in bell fashion at the wrists. The entire lining, overcollar and facings at pockets and wrists are of purple peau de cygne. The coat is navy, gold or beige. $33.75

Cravenetted Tweed Suits made on plain, smart Norfolk lines. Simple, tailored skirt with pockets to match. Brown, gray or green tones. $23.74

Third Floor, 35th Street, Broadway

Boots Like These Are Unusual at $8.89

Equal workmanship and smartness are marked much higher elsewhere. These new spring boots are in two combinations:

Patent or dull kid with quarters and tops of gray suede. Nine inches high with light soles and Louis XV. heels. These are exceptional shoes at $8.89 pair.

Second Floor, 35th St., Near

6 to 16 Arrays Herself for Spring

The department that knows and understands girls is ready for the new season, specializing in coats, suits and frocks not merely "stylish" but incorporating the spirit of the mode in a young and winsome way. The prices, too, have a youthful atmosphere—modest in all instances.

A—Chic pleated suit somewhat Norfolk in style, made on straight, girlish lines. Navy, apple green or rose wool poplin with collar of satin in contrasting color. The pleated skirt has detachable suspenders. The coat is lined with peau de cygne. Sizes 12 to 16 years. $19.74

B—Empire coat of velour check or navy serge; hand embroidered pique collar and cuffs; two tailored vest pockets; serge lined. Sizes 6 to 10 years. $11.74

C—Afternoon frock of rose, Hague or reseau taffeta trimmed with Georgette crepe. Clever strappings and shirred cordings. Sizes 6 to 14 years. $15.74

Coats of serge, velour and novel checks in a variety of new and pleasing models, all thoughtfully selected. Styles suitable for the little girls and those of awkward ages and sizes. 6 to 16 years. $9.74

Girls' New Tub Frocks, $1.89, $2.89, $3.96

Gingham, pique, repp and chambray, used in a novel and interesting way with smart little touches of hand embroidery; gay new colors; and combinations of colors and materials decidedly different. Sizes 6 to 14 years.
